

The ability of XM radio to carry weather and traffic should not be legislated against. I was under the impression that there existed certain rights for radio and television that protected them from sensorship. I feel this "Pay to Listen" freedom should be protected by the FCC and not controlled by the NAB. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Tom McLean